Join us for another Magical Musical Season!

Parents let your child's teacher know how Storybook can help in the classroom.
Teachers let Storybook help build core curriculum with the following programs.

Page to Stage Program brings our professional artists/teachers into the classroom to collaborate with teachers and students. This program is designed to better develop student's writing, reading and oral presentation skills using a variety of different activities.

Pre-show Workshops/Post-show Talkbacks have been developed to enhance the theatrical experience.

Professional Training Workshops are designed to help educators build new skills in arts and education.

Acting and Specialty Workshops help your students develop basic acting skills using theater games and activities. Some specialty workshops may include: movement and dance, musical theatre, improvisation, and playwriting.

Study Guides help prepare students for the performance they are going to attend. Discussion points for the plot and moral are included. Study Guides for all shows are available online.

All our programs are designed by former and present teachers.

Your theatrical performances are a fantastic way to inspire young imaginations. - N. Brady, 2025

Super positive, well-done productions, and a local cultural treasure! - K. McShain March 2024

PRINCESS AND THE PEA - 2019
Laura Baron

Wonderful! I brought my son for his 4th birthday with a bunch of friends. They reserved the whole third row for us and the show was adorable. Then the entire cast sang happy birthday to him while on stage at the end of the show! It was completely unexpected and such a wonderful surprise. Absolutely great experience!
- B Fallon July 2024

My campers loved the play. Can't wait to see some of their other shows. - B Rabbit July 2024

Thumbs up!
